HOLIDAY HIDEOUT

If you have booked your child(ren) on to the Holiday Hideout and you wish to use Childcare Vouchers, could you please notify Rosie Heywood by the end of term?
rosie@holidayhideout.com Many thanks.

BALLET

Please note the last lesson is on 30th June. Details of the lessons and grades for next year will be given out before the end of term.

SUMMER CONCERT—Friday, 2nd July, 7pm, Arts Hall

For this event, pick-up for Years 2—4 will be at the normal time, with a return to school for 6.30pm. There is no supervision for these year groups in school between these times. All of the performers in Years 5—8 will be signed up for supper in school.

The following groups will be performing in the concert: Junior Choir, Cha Cha Ch, Champagne Flutes, Solid Brass, String Orchestra, Wind Band and other soloists.

PARTICULARLY PRE-PREP REMINDERS FOR NEXT WEEK

SWIMMING

Reminders – Nursery and Year 2 have their open swimming lessons when parents are welcome to come and watch. Please check with the class teachers for exact times of your child's lesson.

VISIT TO SANDHURST RECREATION GROUND

I am not sure of the forecast for next week, but please ensure that your child has his/her sun hat for the day and an outer coat, so that we are prepared for every eventual-ity. Ballet will take place as usual that day.

JUDO DISPLAY

Reception parents are invited to a short display of judo at 3.00pm on Thursday 24th June in the Arts Hall.

TESCO VOUCHERS

Thank you to all those who have been contributing your vouchers to the school. We have been able to order some exciting things, such as some lovely building bricks for the Nest and some hoppers for the Pre-Prep playgrounds, all of which you will no doubt see in use next term.

STAFF NEWS

Tracey Lightstone (Head of French) will be back in school for the last two weeks of term after her maternity leave but has decided not to return in September. The new Head of French from September is Anne-Sophie Le Mat. Anne-Sophie did her PGCE at the Roehampton Institute after studying at the Universite de Cergy in Pontoise, France. She has taught at various schools including: Langley Grammar School, Halliford School in Middlesex and Claire's Court in Maidenhead. She has a young son. Nick Jenkins will also be joining the staff in September to teach Science and Maths. Nick did his PGCE at Bath, after gaining two degrees, a BSc in Economics and Accounting at Bristol University and a BSc from Durham University in Natural Sciences. Before becoming a teacher, Nick spent eight years in marketing and advertising.

FESTIVAL OF EDUCATION - SUNDAY TIMES AND WELLINGTON COLLEGE

Wellington College is hosting this Festival of Education over two days, 3rd and 4th July, and we felt that many of you would be interested in hearing the debates and talks which will be led by many famous and influential characters. Go to <http://www.festivalofeducation.org.uk/> for more information.

YEAR 2 VISIT THE LIVING RAINFOREST

Last week Year 2 ventured out to the Living Rainforest near Newbury. Both greenhouses were filled with vegetation and small animals that can be found in the different layers of an equatorial rainforest. We had an adaptations tour and spent some time sketching what we saw. The children experienced how humid a tropical climate can be.

‘The black and orange tarantula was amazing and scary.’ George

‘The chocolate bean tree smelt great.’ Poppy

‘There was a bright green lizard balanced on the red fire exit button as we went in one of the greenhouses. He wasn’t very well camouflaged. He hadn’t moved for 3 days!’ Aman

‘The pygmy monkeys had very thick black fur to try to be waterproof. Their eyes were like tiny black beads.’ Charlie D

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE FESTIVAL

None of you can have missed the fact that the Children's Literature Festival has been the main attraction this week. So many children have been inspired to get stuck into reading and even adults have been surprised at what they've seen and heard during this week of meeting authors and listening to what they have to say.

We have all noticed the effect this week has had:

"Freddie has come home each day full of it. Excited by the authors and full of enthusiasm for reading. Read his book last night despite his brother and sister watching TV!"

"I came to the festival last night with J & J to see Jeremy Strong. He was brilliant and the atmosphere around the school was buzzing. Josie and Jamie didn't stop talking about the festival all night."

"My son is not one for picking up books, but today he is determined to sit and finish this one and is desperate to read the next in the series"

As for me, I haven't had much opportunity to visit the marquee or the KidsZone, but I have been reading the blog and I would urge all of you to do so, especially if you too have not been able to come along. It has been a truly worthwhile, and sometimes life-changing week. We are very lucky to have been able to welcome so many famous people to Eagle House. Ed.

80's Disco

With the final countdown to a wonderful evening this is a final reminder to all partygoers for this Saturday 19 June, this promises to be the highlight of the year with lots of activities and chances to support the school and have fun

1. Please bring LOTS AND LOTS AND LOTS of CASH!!!!!!!!!!
2. Parking will be available on the nearside of the all weather - this is the safest place to park. Also, we would request that you park with your headlights facing the swimming pool, in order to minimise disturbance to the householders around the school boundary.

Please arrive on time. The event WILL start promptly - it is 1945 for 2015 prompt

Remember all proceeds go towards the Aiming High Campaign so don't forget to bring LOTS AND LOTS AND LOTS of CASH!

Coffee & Cakes

Next Friday, 25th June, is the next time for Coffee & Cakes in the Old Library from 8.00am til 11.00am. Come along and enjoy a cuppa and company!

Eagle House Charity

Each year the EHA use some of the proceeds raised throughout the year to support a local charity and we are looking for nominations for the 2010/2011 year. If any parent has a favourite local charity they would like us to support during the course of next year please let us know. Either tell your year rep or drop me an email with your suggestions.
