GOOD LUCK FOR NEXT THURSDAY!

THE MOONWALK

I cannot believe that it is already 3 weeks since the Moonwalk. I should like to thank everyone here at Eagle House who made a pledge or donation. Many of you have already heard that the walk did not quite go to plan! Although I walked a total of 250 miles in training, it took only 17 miles of the walk to see me on a stretcher outside the Royal Albert Hall (fame at last!). Unfortunately, the medics wouldn't allow me to continue although I wanted to, so I feel something of a fraud calling in donations, but it is for a worthwhile cause. If you still feel you can donate, I would be thrilled—the total I should receive, according to the pledges, is £1500, so many thanks to you all. Rose Pearce

MORE CHARITABLE SUPPORT

Dear Friends

I would like to thank everyone who kindly contributed to the team from the Renal Unit at St Helier Hospital who completed the London Marathon. The amount raised from Katherine and myself totalled £447, of which £200 came from Eagle House contributions.

When I receive the information from St Helier regarding the official times of the team and the total amount raised for the Renal Unit, I will update everyone.

Many thanks to everyone—your kindness is appreciated. Sonia Walton

Updates from Upstairs!

We've had a very quiet and focused week upstairs! Those taking their Common Entrance were afforded the utmost respect from all! I think that the younger boarders were a little in awe of these thumping Year 8s who had permanent looks of fear etched into their faces! Let's all hope that those endless study sessions with Mr Carder pay dividends!?!

On Wednesday we had a sunny evening so hit the BBQ...burgers, no no no, juicy steaks were the order for the day! I think that there was a wonderful feeling that 'exams' were drawing to a close. This weekend Mr Edwards heads to Thorpe Park...and we will make plans for the annual boarders 'camp out'! Stories of an old classics teacher who roams Manor pitch start to surface...scratches on tent nylon...howls from the woods! Oh yes, he's coming to get you...

AIM . . . FIRE!

Thursday saw the end of Common Entrance and a chance to let off some steam paintballing! 8E and 8W were ready for battle at Hotshots near Thatcham along with sharpshooters Edwards, Barnard, Theocharis, Morgan-Giles and Ladley!

It was a great afternoon and the two teams fought bravely. As a member of the red team it's fair to say we just pipped the yellows to the post, although in reality honours were probably shared. Several different terrains were selected for the games and the highlight has to be Dominic Auger's brave flag capture under fire from the army vehicle in game two.

Quite a few sore bodies got back on the minibuses to drive back to school and one or two were sporting interesting bruises! The boys and girls were great company and it was a pleasure to take them out despite the fact that they managed to shoot me within a minute of the first game!

Ready, Aim, Fire!
